

The Spiritual Care Series: a volunteer training course

Featuring Professor John Swinton brought to you by HTN, Meaningful Ageing Australia and ACC

High quality spiritual care volunteer training

- It is difficult to access high quality education for volunteers in pastoral and spiritual care
- HTN and Meaningful Ageing Australia share a passion to promote and pursue excellence in the provision of pastoral and spiritual care for the benefit of the older person, their significant others and their carers
- The program will provide carers, volunteers, family and friends of an older persons, with an accessible, high quality standard for pastoral and spiritual care within a care setting including:
 - Developing a good understanding of the pastoral and spiritual needs of older people
 - Understanding spirituality and its connection to quality care and quality of life for of the older person
 - Providing the key practical knowledge required to undertake pastoral and spiritual care within the aged care sector
 - The series includes filmed content, facilitator and participant manuals

The Spiritual Care Series will provide a recognised benchmark for the provision of excellent pastoral and spiritual care by carers and volunteers in the aged care sector

This series also provides the opportunity for:

- Participants to access the program series and resources on-line
- Development of on-line tracking, allowing the organisation to monitor volunteer participants' progress

For more information about the Spiritual Care Series go to www.meaningfulageing.org.au

Available at reduced rates for Meaningful Ageing member organisations